Why Study English?

English and Film Studies offers one of the most dynamic learning environments at the University of Alberta, with great resources and opportunities for students:

- small classes that afford regular direct contact between instructors and students;
- a superb university library, with physical holdings, electronic resources, and digital databases to rival the very best in North America;
- opportunities for community engaged learning;
- longest-running Writer-in-Residence Program in Canada, sponsoring annual residencies for acclaimed authors;
- first university home for digital humanities in Canada;
- numerous awards to support undergraduate study and recognize outstanding students;
- the English and Film Studies Undergraduate Network (EFSUN), a vibrant students’ group that plans exciting events annually.

Study in EFS provides students with rich experience engaging collectively and critically with culture; a broad education rather than rote learning; and enduring skills, applicable to any workplace, that outlast the latest technology:

- effective communication and argument;
- ability to analyze diverse forms of linguistic and cultural expression;
- critical thinking, analysis, judgment;
- ability to understand and develop intricate ideas, to apply diverse theoretical positions, and to weigh the importance of alternative perspectives;
- ability to grasp the nuances and ambiguities of words and symbols;
- research skills, including ability to gather, sift, and organize quantities of diverse material and evaluate its significance.

Employers love hiring English majors – and English majors pursue diverse careers! Some notable alumni from EFS include Paula Simons (award-winning journalist and producer), Jason Kapalka (co-founder of PopCap Games), Mark Haroun (writer and producer on TV’s Heartland), and Shar Levine (bestselling children’s author).
