INTERVIEW AGREEMENT

This agreement is to help people understand their role in interviews which are conducted in connection with the Kule Centre for Ukrainian and Canadian Folklore at the Faculty of Arts at the University of Alberta.

Thank you for helping in the study of Ukrainian and Canadian culture.

The goals of the Kule Folklore Centre are to collect and preserve information about Ukrainian culture in a variety of ways. Your participation in this project is voluntary. You have the right to withdraw from the interview and the project at any time. Your name and other personal information will not be made public without your permission.

The information will be placed in the Bohdan Medwidsky Ukrainian Folklore Archives at the University of Alberta, and can be made accessible to future researchers under the same conditions. Selected excerpts or images may also be published in books, articles, CDs, on the internet or in other formats for public access.

If you wish that your name NOT be connected with the presentation for this project, please check this box: [ ]

______________________________________________________________
Interviewee’s name                                      date

______________________________________________________________
Interviewee’s signature                                  date

______________________________________________________________
Researcher’s name                                        date