

BACHELOR OF ARTS (BA)

MODERN LANGUAGES AND CULTURAL STUDIES

MLCS

Modern Languages and Cultural Studies is the study of languages, cultures, texts, and contexts. How do I say "welcome" in Arabic, Italian, or Swedish? How do the arts reflect cultural traditions? How can we better communicate across borders? What does language say about our changing society?

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A MLCS DEGREE?

I COULD BE A... foreign service officer, translator, journalist, community outreach co-ordinator, project manager, language teacher, researcher.

OR WORK IN... education, foreign service, business, translation, journalism, law, international organizations, tourism, federal government.

TOP 5 REASONS TO STUDY MLCS

- 1 Develop critical thinking in cross-cultural perspectives and hone your oral and written communication skills to become a leader of tomorrow's increasingly multicultural society.
- 2 Practice using your language skills and knowledge of other cultures beyond the classroom by volunteering through Community Service-Learning or participating in an Arts Work Experience internship. Earn credits toward your degree at the same time.
- 3 Create your own path with flexible learning options: study multiple languages and cultures for breadth or take a deep dive into one language or region.
- 4 Our award-winning teachers and small classes offer individual attention and an in-depth learning experience where students discover how language, literature, and cultures are interconnected.
- 5 Study abroad for a rewarding first-hand experience with a foreign language and culture, improved fluency in a new language, and increased skill in communicating across cultures.

Meet your advisor and plan your degree path.

EARLY DEGREE

Expand your career options, be proactive and test possibilities. Join a student group.

Take a Community Service-Learning course.

Test your career options: volunteer on or off campus or apply to Arts Work Experience - it might even count toward your degree.

Take a language course in your first year and check out International Week on campus.

MID-DEGREE

Take risks, try new things, ask for and offer help to people you know and people you meet.

Learn more about Indigenous peoples, perspectives, and worldviews.

Get involved with your department: Keep informed of visiting speakers and events, or join a language club.

Add research or creative activities to your degree with Undergraduate Research Initiative, or apply into BA Honors.

Study abroad in a summer program or for a Fall or Winter semester and get up to 15 credits toward your degree. You might even consider an international internship.

LATE DEGREE

Develop and revise your career story based on your values, interests, and what you learn.

Stay on track to graduate - Complete a Program Check on Bear Tracks.

Ask a professor or mentor to be an academic reference.

Reflect on what you're learning and practice self-care; seek out a student or faculty mentor.

Start networking: Get involved with one of the cultural clubs on campus or volunteer with University of Alberta International.

Prepare for your next step, such as graduate studies, professional programs, or employment, with a visit to the Career Centre.
