

BACHELOR OF ARTS (HONORS)

DRAMA

What is theatre? What is live performance? What does it do? How can it be done? By whom? Why does it matter? Drama Honors create, investigate, write, interpret, produce, design, and immerse in theatre and performance. The program is fuelled by critical inquiry, collaboration, collective creation, and innovation. Changing the world, one act at a time.

WHAT CAN I DO WITH A DRAMA HONORS DEGREE?

I COULD BE AN... artistic director, playwright, scholar, actor, stage manager, backstage technician, arts administrator, communications manager, event planner, theatre teacher, dramaturge or facilitator.

SUCCESSFUL GRADUATES ALSO WORK IN... television as story co-ordinators, non-profit management, public service, health and wellness, journalism, politics, strategic planning, libraries, law courts, or museums.

TOP 3 REASONS TO STUDY DRAMA, FROM OUR GRADUATES

- 1 Rigorous conceptual thinking:
"Learning to think and speak about theatre on a conceptual level, specifically, how to recognize a metaphor onstage, and speak to the intersection between text, bodies, image, and meaning. How to write with rigour and specificity [while meeting] deadlines."
- 2 Connecting theory and practice:
"Classes in theory and research, along with my honors paper, prepared me to look at my theatre practice more critically, which has helped me develop my craft."
- 3 Flexible and personalized:
"The personalized approach was the most beneficial aspect in my opinion. As the course content heavily relied on discussing the assigned material, being heard was both imperative and conducive to the learning process."
