The Purpose of the Proposal is (please be specific)	To amend the 2021-2022 Academic Schedule, originally approved by the GFC Executive Committee on October 5, 2020.
Executive Summary (outline the specific item – and remember your audience)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • This proposal seeks to amend the 2021-2022 Academic Schedule in order for the University of Alberta to observe the Day for Truth and Reconciliation on September 30, 2021. This will impact the current academic schedule, which was approved by the General Faculties Council Executive Committee on October 5, 2020. • Observing this day for the Fall 2021 term will result in a loss of one instructional day. We have approximately 2000 classes that will be impacted by a campus closure on September 30, 2021. This includes a mix of in person and online classes. The Faculty of Extension has approximately 20 classes that will be impacted. • The impact of the loss of this instructional day will vary by programs. Due to critical content or accreditation requirements, some programs may be in a position where they will be required to make up this instructional day, while others will not need to reschedule the class but can cover the content distributed throughout the remainder of the term. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ In order to prevent the loss of an instructional day, December 8 will be designated as a new instructional day where class time can be rescheduled where necessary. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ Classes scheduled for less than the full 13 week term will need to reschedule their courses, with the support of the Office of the Registrar, on a different date • Major deadlines that were previously scheduled on September 30, such as the tuition payment deadline, the deadline for graduate students to submit their thesis for Fall Convocation, and the deadline for graduate students to apply for graduation are revised in this amendment <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ September 30th deadlines will be moved to the next business day, October 1

FINAL Item No. 1

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> This amendment will require a robust communications plan to instructors as soon as possible so that planning for fall classes can be finalized in time for the start of the fall semester. It will also require clear communications to students providing notice of this change.
