120 The Faculty of Native Studies

Vision

To develop the Faculty of Native Studies at the University of Alberta into the preeminent Native Studies program in Canada.

Mission

To provide a common ground for Native and non-Native students to learn, research, explore and critically examine the historical and contemporary relations that concern Native peoples and communities.

Values

The Faculty of Native Studies values:

- our autonomy as a Faculty within the academy
- interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary approaches
- the relevance of Native perspectives and Indigenous knowledge
- the contribution of Elders to teaching, research and sense of direction
- our interactions and connections with Native communities
- the promotion of Indigenous languages
- the scholarly standards of the academy for the creation and dissemination of knowledge

History of the Faculty

Establishing an academic unit focusing on Native Studies had been discussed within the University of Alberta since 1972, when such a unit was proposed in a University Senate Committee meeting by representatives of the Indian Association of Alberta.

In 1978, 20 recommendations were made to the University Senate by its task force regarding improved service to Native people and a more coherent involvement in Native Studies. In that year, the University of Alberta GFC established a Standing Committee on Native Studies consisting of University of Alberta faculty members and students and representatives of the Native community at large.

After several years of research, discussion, and consultation with interested individuals and groups from inside and outside the University, the Committee on Native Studies opted for an ambitious program of Native Studies.

The Committee on Native Studies proposed the establishment of a School of Native Studies that would be multidisciplinary in character, instead of a small department that would confine itself to Native history, language and culture. The School would offer a wide range of courses leading to a Bachelor of Arts degree in Native Studies, as well as minor concentrations for students in other Faculties. Faculty members and students would engage in research with special attention to language and land use. Though not parochial in its outlook on Native Studies, the Faculty would pay particular attention to Native peoples—Indian, Inuit, and Métis of the Canadian West and North.

The establishment of a School of Native Studies and a Bachelor of Arts in Native Studies was approved by GFC and the Board of Governors of the University in Spring 1984. In the same year, the Universities Coordinating Council also approved the School and the degree. In 1988, the GFC and the Government of Alberta approved a program of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts in Native Studies.

With the growth in student and faculty numbers and the expansion of teaching and research came the change from School to Faculty of Native Studies in June, 2006.

121 The Professors

121.1 Teaching and Scholarship

Two distinct yet related Principles underlie the Faculty's Program of Studies. The first Principle is respect for indigenous knowledge systems, including languages, cultures, and philosophies. The second Principle is the University's emphasis on research excellence. Together, these Principles focus on the Faculty's developing a research capability to address issues affecting Indian, Inuit, and Métis people today. In this context, the students' program of study centres on developing knowledge, and analytical and research skills suited to address problems of current Native interest.

The objective is to provide students with interdisciplinary academic experience that is integrative. Land, language and self-government are among the most vital issues identified by Native communities in the Canadian West and North. These issues and the emphasis on research of the University and the Native communities have shaped course development. At the same time, Native communities are dynamic, and the Faculty intends to respond to these changes and to developments in the broader Canadian society. With academic excellence as the standard, the Faculty's courses are interrelated and may be grouped in the following key areas of study:

- (1) Language and Culture
- (2) Land and Resources
- (3) Self-Governance
- (4) Community-Based Research and Applied Skills

122 Faculty Regulations

122.1 Admission and Transfer

For general University admission and transfer requirements, see §§13 and 14. For specific information about admission to the Faculty of Native Studies, see §15.10.

122.2 Registration and Changes of Registration

Deadlines are strictly observed. See §12. For further information, see §22.1.

- (1) Student Responsibility: Students are responsible for the completeness and accuracy of their registration and for ensuring their programs are in accordance with degree specifications. Read the Calendar carefully, and if you are in doubt about the regulations pertaining to your program, please consult the Faculty office.
- (2) Failure to “drop” a course: Students who do not formally withdraw from a course but who are absent from the final examination without excuse (see §23.5.3) are given a mark of zero (0) on the final examination. The final grade in the course is then determined by combining the appropriately weighted term grade and the assigned zero in the final examination, the mathematical result rounded to the closest whole number. Students who register in a course but do not attend and do not formally withdraw receive a grade of F.
Also refer to §§23.5.3 and 122.6.
- (3) Course Load Requirement: Normally, students in the Faculty of Native Studies take a full course load, i.e., ★30, during the Fall/Winter. In exceptional circumstances, and following completion of the first ★30, acceleration to the maximum of ★36 per Fall/Winter may be permitted. In the BA in Native Studies program, students are permitted to take less than a full course load.

122.3 Classification and Selection of Courses

- (1) Course Definitions
 - a. Course Designation: Each course is designated by its computer abbreviation and a number.
 - b. Units of Course Weight: A unit of course weight indicates the instructional credit assigned to a course and is designated by the ★ symbol after the course number and name. Units of course weight are used to measure the portion of the degree requirements and are also used in calculating a student’s Grade Point Average (GPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA).
 - c. Full Course Weight (FCW): A full course weight (FCW) is a single course or a group of courses whose combined course weight is ★6.
 - d. Full Course: A course with a weighting factor of six or greater, that normally extends over two consecutive University terms.
 - e. Half Course: A course with a weighting factor of less than six that normally extends over one University term.
 - f. Normal Course Load: A normal full academic course load is ★30 during Fall/Winter.
 - g. Options: Courses taken from other Faculties approved for use by the Faculty as partial fulfilment of the Faculty’s graduation requirements.
 - h. Courses Extra to the Degree: Courses taken during the student’s tenure in the Faculty which, with the approval of the Director of the Faculty, are not being used for degree credit are designated as courses extra to the degree.
- (2) Junior English: ★6 of ENGL 101, 111, 112, 113, 114 or equivalents are required for the Native Studies BA degree program.
- (3) First Year: Mandatory first-year requirements in all programs include a junior English course and a course to clear a deficiency (where applicable). Other first year requirements are listed in §123.1.2.
- (4) Restricted Enrolment Courses: The Faculty of Native Studies strives to accommodate all students wanting to enrol in a given course when it is appropriate to the student’s program. However, classes in some courses must, for academic reasons, be restricted in size. Such courses will be labelled “restricted enrolment” in the timetable. If such a course is found to be oversubscribed, students whose programs do not require that course, or who do not have the prerequisite, may be required to delete it from their registration.

- (5) Junior Courses: In all programs, normally no more than ★48 at the 100-level may be taken for degree credit. In no case will this limit be extended to permit a student to make up a matriculation deficiency for degree credit or to include a “free” option at the junior level.

122.4 Academic Record

Students should be aware that their academic record (i.e., transcript) is continuing in nature and that all matters relating to courses, grades, academic standing, probation, etc., appear permanently on the academic record.

122.5 Credit by Special Assessment

See Credit by Special Assessment, §14.2.5, for further important information.

Credit by Special Assessment permits students to receive degree credit in specified courses without actually registering in and taking courses if the student can demonstrate an acceptable mastery of the course content.

Please consult, §42.5 Credit by Special Assessment in the Faculty of Arts for specific information regarding the following:

- (1) Basis of Application,
- (2) Limits,
- (3) Deadline for Completion,
- (4) Grading,
- (5) Transfer of Credit by Special Assessment, and
- (6) Fees.

122.6 Academic Standing

The Faculty’s general academic standing regulations apply to all students and are listed here. Additional promotion and graduation requirements for individual degree programs are noted in the specific program sections.

Academic standing is assessed based on a student’s GPA. (Rules for computing the GPA are listed in §23.4(6).) Students are expected to maintain a 2.0 minimum GPA. Students who do not maintain this level of academic performance may be permitted to continue under academic warning or may be required to withdraw.

An initial review of academic performance will be conducted for each student at the end of Fall/Winter, covering the previous calendar year’s work; subsequent reviews will be conducted at the end of each Fall/Winter.

The assignment and reassignment of categories of academic standing is based on a student’s performance in a minimum of ★12. If, at the time of review, a student has attempted fewer than ★12 since the last assignment of a category of academic standing the review will be deferred and the academic standing assigned at the last review will remain in effect until the next review.

- (1) Application of Academic Standings
 - a. First-Class Standing: First-class standing in a given year is awarded to any undergraduate student who obtains a GPA of not less than 3.5 while enrolled in a full, normal academic course load in that year. For the sole purposes of determining first-class standing, a full, normal academic course load for the Faculty shall be at least ★24 successfully completed during the Fall/Winter.
 - b. Satisfactory Standing (GPA 2.0 and above): Students who maintain a satisfactory standing may continue their studies in the Faculty of Native Studies subject to meeting the specific requirements of their degree program and the general requirements of the University of Alberta.
 - c. Marginal Standing (GPA 1.7 to 1.9 inclusive): Students receiving the first assessment of marginal standing are permitted to continue under academic warning until the next assignment of academic standing to raise the GPA to 2.0 or higher, if their specific degree requirements and the general requirements of the University of Alberta are also met. Such students who succeed in raising the GPA to at least 2.0 may continue their studies with satisfactory standing, but if the GPA drops below 2.0 in a subsequent review, the student is required to withdraw for at least one calendar year.

A student placed on academic warning remains so until the Faculty of Native Studies has ruled that the student has cleared academic warning. Assessment of a marginal student is made at the end of each Fall/Winter or Spring/Summer, and a final assessment is made at the end of the term in which the student completes ★24. To clear academic warning, a student must have

- i) attempted at least ★24;
- ii) achieved a grade of at least D in each course; and
- iii) obtained a CGPA of at least 2.0 on all courses attempted while on academic warning over four consecutive terms excluding Spring/Summer.

A student also fails academic warning if the GPA on a minimum of ★24 is less than 2.0. Note: A student must complete ★24 with a GPA of 2.0, calculated on these ★24.

- d. Unsatisfactory Standing - Requirement to Withdraw (GPA 1.6 and below): If a student's average obtained in any review period on a minimum ★12 falls below a 1.7, the student will be assigned unsatisfactory standing. Such a student will be required to withdraw from the Faculty of Native Studies for at least one calendar year. Courses taken during the period of review resulting in the requirement to withdraw are retained for credit only if a grade of C- or higher was achieved.

Students who are required to withdraw at the end of Fall/Winter cannot register for the following Spring/Summer. Students who register for the Summer Term of Spring/Summer prior to notification being sent of the requirement to withdraw will have their registration cancelled without penalty. Those students who have already registered in Spring Term of Spring/Summer prior to notification being sent of the requirement to withdraw will be permitted to continue until the end of Spring Term.

Note: Year 1 and 2 students who have achieved a GPA of between 1.3 and 1.6 may be eligible for admission to the Fresh Start program. Students must be recommended by the Faculty for participation in the Fresh Start program. Further detailed information can be found in §§14.5 and 23.6.2.

- (2) Readmission After a Requirement to Withdraw: A student who was required to withdraw from the Faculty of Native Studies may apply for readmission to the Faculty of Native Studies as a probationary student. Such applications are normally only considered for terms beginning at least one calendar year after the requirement to withdraw. If requested by the Faculty, such applications must be accompanied by a recommendation from Student Counselling Services. Deadlines for submitting applications are listed in §12.

Readmission of nonmatriculated applicants after a failure in half, or more than half, of the ★24 in first year is considered only after matriculation requirements have been completed.

See §14.2.1(5) for admission, readmission requirements after a requirement to withdraw.

- (3) Probation: A student admitted, or readmitted, on academic probation remains on probation until the Faculty of Native Studies has ruled that probation has been cleared or failed. Final assessment of a probationary student is made at the end of the term in which the student completes ★24. To clear probation, a student must have (a) attempted a minimum of ★24; (b) achieved in each course a minimum grade of C-; and (c) obtained a minimum 2.0 GPA on all courses attempted while on probation over four consecutive terms excluding Spring/Summer.

A student also fails probation if the GPA on a minimum of ★24 is less than 2.0. Note: A student must complete ★24 with a GPA of 2.0, calculated on these ★24.

122.7 Reexamination

See §23.5.5.

122.8 Graduation

- (1) Application: Students wanting to receive a Faculty of Native Studies degree at an upcoming Convocation must apply for graduation on Bear Tracks (<https://www.beartracks.ualberta.ca>) in accordance with the deadlines specified in §11. Also see §23.7.

122.9 Appeals

Formal and informal grade appeal and academic appeal procedures and regulations are available from the Faculty of Native Studies.

122.10 Academic Offences

A breach of the Code of Student Behavior, for example, plagiarism or cheating, may result in penalties. For further information refer to §30 of the GFC Policy Manual.

The graduation average is the quotient of (a) the total number of grade points earned by the student in courses credited to the degree, and (b) the total weight of those courses. The major graduation average is the quotient of courses used to satisfy the Native Studies major requirement specifically (see §123.1.3). When a student has attempted, as part of the program, courses at an institution for which the grades are not precisely equivalent to those of the University of Alberta, the degree is awarded at the discretion of the Faculty of Native Studies. Courses with final grades less than C- are not transferable from other postsecondary institutions.

123.2.5 Academic Standing Regulations for the BA (Native Studies)/BEd Combined Degrees

Promotion

- (1) To be eligible to continue in the program, students are required to have a grade point average of at least 2.0. The grade point average will be calculated on all courses completed in the program.
- (2) Successful completion of an academic year and related promotion will also normally require students to have taken at least 18 units of course weight (★18) during each regular academic year. Note: a course load of less than ★18 requires the approval of the Faculty of Native Studies and the Faculty of Education.
- (3) Students who fail to meet the minimum requirements for promotion as outlined above will be required to withdraw from the BA/BEd Combined Degrees. Such students may transfer to another degree program in the Faculty of Native Studies or the Faculty of Education, provided the entrance requirements for such a program are met.
- (4) A student who has been assigned a grade of “W” or “NC” in a Field Experience course is entitled to a second registration in this course. See also §22.1.3 Reregistration in courses. Notwithstanding §22.1.3, if a student receives a “W” or “NC” in the second attempt of a Field Experience course, he/she will be required to withdraw from the Combined Degrees program.

Maintaining Registration

- (1) Once admitted to and registered in the BA (Native Studies)/BEd, students must maintain continuing registration from one Fall/Winter to the next Fall/Winter and meet the normal promotion standards until their program is complete.
- (2) However, students with special circumstances may apply for permission to “Stop Out” in order to temporarily withdraw without endangering their space in the program. Permission will be granted only to students in good standing and only for a specified period of time.
- (3) Students who withdraw or Stop Out from the Program for more than a four-month period without permission will be required to reapply and compete for entrance with other applicants.
 - a. Students proceeding toward the combined BA (Native Studies)/BEd, must normally have completed at least ★90 at the University of Alberta. Students who transfer into the BA (Native Studies)/BEd, may transfer a maximum of 60 credits applicable to the program.
 - b. The final year of the program will normally be taken in attendance at the University of Alberta. Exemption from this regulation can be made only with approval of the Faculty of Native Studies and the Faculty of Education.

123.3 BA (NS) After Another Undergraduate Degree

Applicants with a first undergraduate degree may be admitted to the BA (Native Studies) degree program. All requirements of the BA (Native Studies) degree, as in §123.1.2 are to be met, but the total number of required courses for the After Degree may be reduced by a maximum of ★60 taken in the first degree. These courses from the first degree may only be from the Faculties of Arts or Science, or from any other Faculty through which students in the Native Studies degree program may take their second area of concentration (e.g., Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics). Moreover, these courses from the first degree must be appropriate to satisfy the requirements of the BA (Native Studies) degree. The After Degree program is taken under the direction of the Faculty of Native Studies.

123.4 BA in Native Studies (Honors) (BA NS Hon)

The BA NS Honors degree provides further specialization within the Native Studies program. It enables students to study in greater depth and demands a higher standard of performance than the BA NS program. The Honors program provides excellent preparation for graduate study, especially in Native Studies.

123.4.1 General Program Requirements

- (1) Residence Requirement: the Honors degree requires ★120 of which
 - a. ★66 must be courses in the Faculty of Native Studies or Faculty of Arts,
 - b. ★60 must be courses taken at the University of Alberta, and
 - c. ★30 must be completed after being admitted to the honors program.

- (2) Course Load Requirements

Students usually complete the Honors program in four consecutive Fall/Winter periods, with ★30 in each Fall/Winter.

With the prior approval of the Native Studies Honors Advisor, a reduced course load may be taken in extenuating circumstances provided that ★9 is taken in each term. Requests to take less than ★9 per term may be considered by the Faculty's Honors Committee in exceptional circumstances; however, a course load of less than ★9 in each term will not normally be permitted in the Honors program.

All degree requirements should be completed within 5 academic years of commencing the second year of the program.

- (3) Advising: Honors students are advised to have their programs and registration checked by the Academic Advisor annually and are responsible for the accuracy of their programs.

123.4.2 Course Requirements

The Honors degree requires ★120 comprised of the following groups of courses:

(1) Faculty Common Core (★30)

BA NS Honors and BA NS students complete the same basic requirements. See §123.1.2.

Depending on the number of courses taken in the major and on there being a minor, students may take up to ★42 in options. Acceptable option courses may be taken from the credit course offerings open to Native Studies students from any U of A Faculty but must meet their prerequisite requirements.

(5) Junior courses

No more than ★48 at the 100-level are permitted for credit in the program.

123.4.3 Promotion and Graduation(1) Promotion Requirements: 3.0 GPA on all courses taken in the Fall/Winter, and 3.3 GPA on courses in the major in the Fall/Winter.

Students who do not meet the promotion requirements in Honors may transfer to the BA NS program provided they meet the admission requirements for that program. After such transfer, all requirements for the BA NS program must be met.

Students who do not meet the promotion requirements of the Honors program, and who do not meet the admission requirements of the BA NS program, will be reviewed under the general Academic Standing regulations of the Faculty (see §122.6).

The BA NS degree will be granted if the program and graduation requirements for that degree have been met. Students deficient in any respect must take additional courses.

123.5 BA in Native Studies/BSc in Environmental and Conservation Sciences Combined Degrees123.5.1 General Information

See §§15.1.3 and 15.10.4

The Faculty of Native Studies and the Faculty of Agriculture, Forestry, and Home Economics offer a five-year integrated program of ★150 leading to Bachelor of Science and Bachelor of Arts degrees.
