Message from the President

Welcome to the University of Alberta. Welcome to your future!

As you begin to shape your ambitions, as a student of the University of Alberta, you are embarking on a voyage that will prepare you to meet the demands of an ever changing, interconnected world. Here at the University of Alberta, you will find an intelligent community of diversity and creativity—a place where you will learn to challenge and lead a world that is complicated and dynamic.

My proof lies no further than in the halls of our campus. Over a century's worth of University of Alberta students have walked through here. These students have embarked on similar journeys of learning, discovery and citizenship and have left us to transform the world through politics, medicine, art, science, research and education.

Regardless of whether you are a new or returning student, like every other University of Alberta student before you, you have the opportunity to make the most of your experience here. We are here to help you develop your creativity and follow your passion. I challenge you to apply yourself—see where it takes you. See what you can change.

Yours sincerely,

Indira V Samarasekera, O.C.

President and Vice-Chancellor
