

Changes are coming to the GSA in 2023

One elected student leader position has been removed (Vice-President Labour) and the Vice-President Student Life position has been created

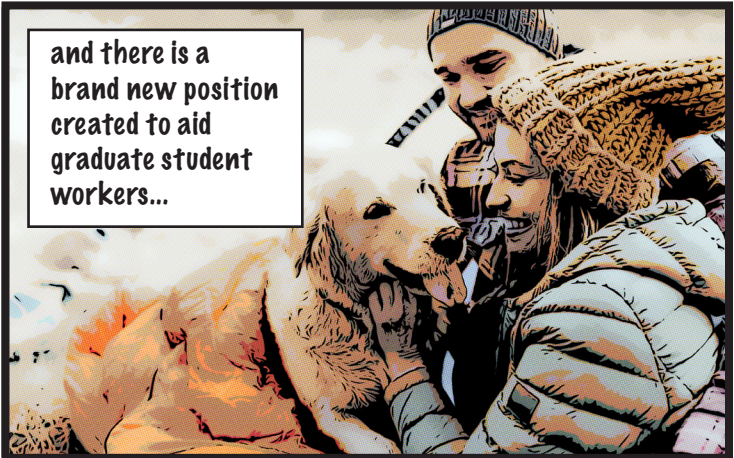

President

VP Academic

VP External

VP Student Life

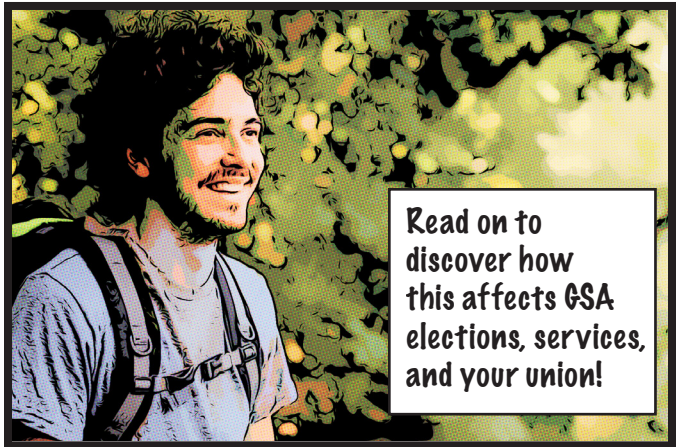

VP Student Services

and there is a brand new position created to aid graduate student workers...

...the Associate Vice-President Labour

Read on to discover how this affects GSA elections, services, and your union!

2 new positions

The GSA Associate Vice-President Labour (AVPL) will work to support graduate students in partnership with the Public Service Alliance Canada (PSAC)...

...and available to advise on GSA collective agreement issues and inquiries

The AVPL also helps negotiate the GSA Collective Agreement

The Vice-President Student Life represents graduate students in matters relating to student life...

...residences, outreach, student conduct...

...and student group engagement

Future GSA Elections will include two separate elections

The GSA General Election with voting open to all graduate students...

...will elect the GSA President, Vice-President Academic, Vice-President External, Vice-President Student Life, and Vice-President Student Services

The GSA Associate Vice-President Labour Election will have voting open only to current Academically-Employed Graduate Students (AEGSs)

Graduate Research Assistants

Graduate Teaching Assistants

Graduate Research Assistant Fellowship holders