POLICY

Professional dress is a part of overall professionalism. Students in the Radiation Therapy Program are expected to adhere stringently to the following dress code:

Classroom

- Dress in didactic classes is informal.
- In clinical labs, modules and scenarios, dress is professional “business casual.”

Anatomy Lab and other Labs

- Scrubs or respectful informal clothing is allowed (AHS scrubs not permitted).
- A long white lab coat and hospital ID must be worn at all times.
- No open-toed or open-heeled shoes are allowed.
- Hats are not permitted.
- No latex gloves to be worn in transit to or out of the anatomy lab.
- Anatomy lab coat is to be worn ONLY in the anatomy lab, and is NOT permitted in the clinical environment.

Clinical Settings (all AHS facilities)

- Scrubs are allowed (AHS scrubs not permitted), with their university ONECard and hospital ID visible.
- Students are required to wear a clean white lab coat over clothing, with their university ONECard and hospital ID visible.
- Shoes should be neat and clean, close-toed, closed-heeled and silent (soft soled).
- No perfume, cologne or heavily scented grooming products: the clinical environment is a scent-free zone.
- Refrain from wearing excessive jewelry.
- No artificial nails and no nail polish of any sort.
- No facial, tongue or body jewelry.
- Facial hair must be neatly trimmed to comply with mask fitting regulations.
- Shoulder length hair must be pulled back.

BSc RADIATION THERAPY • UNIVERSITY OF ALBERTA
